

PIEI-WOT-KENA MISSION TRIP POLICY

I realize that the following elements are crucial to the effectiveness, quality, and safety of our mission trip together. As a member of this mission team, I agree to:

1. Remember that I am a guest working at the invitation of a local pastor or nationalist.
2. Respect the host's view of Christianity. Recognize that Christianity has many faces throughout the world, and that the purpose of this trip is to be a witness and experience faith lived out in a new setting.
3. Develop and maintain a servant's attitude toward all nationals and my teammates.
4. Respect my team leader(s) and his or her decisions.
5. Refrain from gossip. You may be surprised how each person will blossom when freed from the concern that others may be passing judgment.
6. Give all credit of accomplishments and favor to God. Realizing the amazing things God would allow the team to accomplish if we don't mind who gets the credit, He deserves all the Glory!
7. Refrain from complaining, know that travel can present numerous unexpected and undesired circumstances, but the rewards of conquering such are innumerable. You are to be creative and supportive.
8. Respect the work that is going on in the country with the particular church(es) or person(s) with whom we are working. Realize that our team is here for just a short while, but the local church is here for the long term. I am to respect their knowledge, insights, and instructions.
9. Refrain from negative political comments or hostile discussions concerning our host country's politics.
10. Refrain from any activity that would be construed as a romantic interest toward a national. Realize that certain activities that seem innocent in my own culture may seem inappropriate in others.
11. Abstain from the consumption of alcoholic beverage and/or the use of tobacco while on this trip.

12. I agree to be flexible and serve in whatever service area is allowed and open to me on the mission field.
